

Group Homework #1

1. State the mean value theorem, make sure you clearly state the hypotheses and conclusion.
2. Show that if F and G are antiderivatives of f then $F - G = C$ where C is a constant (does not depend on x). Hint: Use the mean value theorem on the function $H = F - G$.